

IRREANTUM A Review of
Mormon Literature & Film

VOLUME 9, NUMBER 1 (2007)

In the theater, Jezebel slumped in her seat. She hadn't cared for that day's movie—foolish women complaining at their lack of men. She preferred explosions and gunshots and several hundred deaths.

—Katherine Woodbury, "Scattered"

Fiction

Official publication of the Association for Mormon Letters $8

IRREANTUM

VOLUME 9, NUMBER 1 (2007)

IRREANTUM

A Review of Mormon Literature & Film

VOLUME 9, NUMBER 1 (2007)